Muffin, Muffin light

Designer: Ryosuke Fukusada

The shape of the moulds of the most famous American dessert becomes a piece of furniture. Muffin is a versatile complement that, depending on needs, can act as a seat or coffee table and is an effective multi-purpose element in any indoor or outdoor environment: from the living room to the bedroom, from the terrace to the garden. A metal top can be applied to embellish Muffin and make it a comfortable living room table or an original bedside table. Muffin is an irreverent, fun complement that stimulates curiosity and, despite its simple and geometric lines, ironically winks at the most contemporary design. In the version with (Muffin light), available in white, it also becomes an original lamp.
